

Located in a prominent position is this substantial Grade Two listed town house with accommodation arranged over 3 floors which includes 4 bedrooms, 3 potential reception rooms with a ground floor commercial space with a shop window. The property features an integral garage, rooftop terrace garden with views across to the Norman Castle and great potential as a work/live property or indeed, subject to planning as a generous family home.

The ground floor can be accessed either via double doors from the shop front or double doors at the side leading off St Thomas Hill. The ground floor accommodation includes the main shop which is a light and spacious room with flagstone slate flooring. There are spacious windows at the front, ideal for advertising and a prime spot for passing traffic along St Thomas Road. There is an additional room used for the shop currently, again with slate flooring and featuring a wood burner. A door leads into a spacious reception room with a window at the side and a feature fireplace with attractive arched inset displays to either side.

There is an inner hallway with cloakroom with a WC plus an integral garage and workshop. There is the main hallway, where there is an external door and an impressive carved wooden staircase leading to the first floor to the residential living accommodation. On this floor there are 2 reception rooms, with a generous living room with 2 windows at the front providing a great outlook across to St Stephens. There is also a well presented dining room alongside an open-plan kitchen and breakfast room with double doors leading out to the roof terrace which is a great space with a view towards Launceston Castle.

On the first floor there are 4 bedrooms, 3 of which are great size double rooms with the main bedroom featuring an en-suite shower room. The 4th bedroom is currently used as a study and enjoys the great view looking up towards the Castle. Adjoining here there is a well appointed bathroom.

Situation

Launceston is an ancient town steeped in History with the imposing Launceston castle overlooking the town and surrounding area. Referred to as 'the gateway to Cornwall' Launceston is centred one mile (1.6 km) west of the River Tamar, which constitutes almost the entire border between the Cornish peninsular and Devon, the A30 is ideally located on the fringe of Launceston connecting to the rest of Cornwall with great access to the beautiful Coastline whilst providing great access to Plymouth and Exeter and beyond. The town itself offers a variety of individual businesses from boutiques to fine food shops, blending with occasional national outlets including Tesco, M&S Food and Costa coffee. Local facilities include a leisure centre, medical facilities and well regarded primary and secondary schooling.
