PROPERTY

Entered via a handsome period timber door, the property opens into a welcoming entrance porch featuring traditional quarry tiled flooring and fitted bench seating. A further original timber door leads through to the beautifully proportioned dining room, historically designed as the principal space for receiving guests.

Rich in character and period charm, the room centres around an impressive brick inglenook fireplace with inset wood-burning stove, slate hearth and substantial oak mantel. Exposed wall timbers and ceiling beams enhance the sense of heritage, while windows to both the front and rear elevations allow for an abundance of natural light. Panel-glazed French doors open onto the attractive covered seating terrace to the front, creating an excellent flow between the indoor and outdoor living spaces. Doors lead through to the open-plan kitchen/dining/family room and the inner hallway beyond.

The inner hallway features an elegant turned staircase rising to the first floor, with a timber door opening into the charming sitting room. A wonderfully inviting reception space, the sitting room is centred around an exposed brick chimney breast with open fireplace and tiled hearth, creating a warm and characterful focal point.

Natural light is drawn in through windows to both the front and side elevations, while panel-glazed doors provide direct access to the rear garden, allowing for an attractive connection between the internal accommodation and the outdoor entertaining areas.

Undoubtedly the heart of the home, the kitchen sits centrally within an impressive open-plan dining and family room, perfectly designed for modern family living and entertaining. Full of warmth and character, the space features an exposed brick chimney breast with inset wood-burning stove together with attractive stone flooring throughout.

The kitchen is fitted with a traditional gas-fired Rayburn, providing both heating and hot water, complemented by an electric hob and oven for convenient summer use.

Leading from the family room is a generously proportioned utility room together with a separate cloakroom/W.C., offering excellent practicality for everyday living. The first-floor landing is a particularly characterful space, showcasing an abundance of exposed wall timbers and ceiling beams that beautifully reflect the heritage and craftsmanship of the building. A substantial airing cupboard is situated above the front porch, providing useful additional storage

The principal bedroom suite is an impressive dual/triple-aspect room enjoying windows to three elevations, creating a wonderfully light and airy atmosphere. The suite is further complemented by a generous en suite bathroom and an excellent walk-in wardrobe. Also arranged on the first floor are two further well-proportioned double bedrooms together with a family bathroom. Stairs rise from the landing to the second floor, where there are two additional double bedrooms.

GARDENS

The property is approached via a gravelled driveway leading to a generous parking and turning area, which continues around the house to the stables and barns beyond.

To the front of the property are attractive lawned gardens together with a substantial covered seating and entertaining area, ideal for outdoor dining and enjoying the surrounding setting. A traditional granary with an adjoining three-bay carport provides excellent ancillary accommodation, with external stairs leading up to the granary loft above. Planning permission was previously granted for conversion of the granary, although this consent has now expired.

The yard incorporates two stables, a substantial twin-bay open-fronted barn with power and lighting connected, together with a further metal-clad barn offering additional storage and agricultural use.

The paddock is easily accessed directly from the yard and gravelled driveway, with the added benefit of separate twin-gated access onto the lane.

Notes - The weather facing gable requires a number of the oak frame timbers replacing, this has caused the ceiling in the bedroom to drop slightly.
