Seller Insight

“ For the past seven years, the owners have cherished this distinctive home, drawn initially by its undeniable character and the immediate sense of belonging it inspired from the moment they stepped inside. Although not originally searching for a semi-detached property, they were captivated by its striking presence and the remarkable feeling of space it offers – a quality that sets it apart, giving it the privacy and atmosphere more commonly associated with a fully detached residence. Set back from the road on a generous corner plot, the property enjoys a spacious driveway with room for three vehicles, while to the rear it opens onto uninterrupted views of rolling fields, creating a rare and harmonious balance between outlook, seclusion, and accessibility.

Inside, the home reveals a natural flow that enhances both comfort and practicality. Thoughtfully arranged interiors maximise light and openness, while retaining a warm cottage charm that feels both welcoming and refined. Larger windows and a beautiful orangery flood the living spaces with natural light throughout the day, creating an uplifting ambiance that shifts gently with the seasons. The sunroom is a particular highlight, offering a tranquil place to begin the morning with coffee while overlooking the garden, whereas in winter the lounge transforms into a cosy retreat centred around a characterful log burner, perfect for quiet evenings or relaxed family time. A separate dining room, doubling as a snug, provides a wonderfully sociable setting for games and gatherings beside the fire.

The mature cottage garden is an equally compelling feature, designed to provide privacy while maintaining a strong connection to the surrounding landscape. In summer, it becomes an idyllic setting for outdoor living – hosting barbecues, enjoying drinks with friends, or simply watching sheep graze peacefully in the adjacent fields. A lovingly created pond and waterfall add both visual beauty and soothing sound, forming a serene corner where one can unwind while catching the last golden rays of evening sunshine. Fruit trees, including apple, plum, and notably abundant pear varieties, bring both seasonal interest and practical enjoyment. The garden is also alive with natural wildlife, offering frequent sightings of owls, red kites, bluetits, robins, badgers, squirrels, and foxes, creating a living backdrop that enhances the sense of rural tranquillity.

Beyond the home itself, the setting provides a welcoming village lifestyle with a strong yet unobtrusive sense of community. From the warm reception the owners received upon arrival to annual events such as the local food and music festival, the area offers opportunities for connection while respecting privacy. Everyday pleasures include countryside dog walks followed by a visit to the nearby The Moon and Sixpence, a much-loved local destination. With easy access to major transport routes and nearby town amenities, the location achieves an enviable balance between peaceful country living and modern convenience.

Above all, this has been more than simply a house – it has been a deeply loved family home, offering security, comfort, and space to grow. Its combination of character, light, privacy, and connection to nature creates a lifestyle that is both restorative and inspiring, making it a truly exceptional opportunity for discerning buyers seeking charm without compromise.*

Front Garden & Parking

The frontage is enclosed by a low-level Hornton stone wall with a wide vehicular access. There is room to park three standard cars on the shingled driveway that slopes gently up towards the house. Evergreen trees, shrubs and bushes protect the frontage, with a stone and brick wall and wrought-iron gate leading to the main garden.

Side & Rear Gardens

Directly behind the conservatory is a shallow terrace with brick retaining walls, planted borders with laurels, camelia and a rhododendron. There are brick piers with bespoke wrought-iron railings providing privacy, whilst allowing an unspoilt view of the paddock and tidy allotments that adjoin the rear garden. The main garden lies to the side of Rose Cottage, and measures around 31m wide by 15m deep, it is predominantly east-facing. There is a large split-level terrace, BBQ area, an ornamental fishpond with pump and filtration system surrounded by level lawn areas. There is a meandering brick and shingle pathway that leads down to the far end of the garden where the LPG tank is located on a concrete base, well screened by wooden fencing. There is a potting shed, a large wooden storage shed and a summerhouse in this part of the garden. There is a lockable gate here that gives fast access to some open countryside walks across the road. Within the garden are planted flower borders with a superb cherry tree, holly, conifer, several silver birch trees, buddleias to attract butterflies, birds and wildlife.

email: chris.mobbs@fineandcountry.com

I joined Fine & Country in 2003, and left the Rugby office as clear market leaders after 14 happy and hard-working years there to replicate that success in my home town of Banbury. I completed my CPEA 2-year qualification by choice in 1986 to try and raise the profile of estate agency. I work closely with all of my highly valued clients and I am available 24/7 to ensure we get the desired outcome. My knowledge enables me to resolve any hurdles along the journey, and I remain just as passionate as when I started my successful career back in 1986!

“Outstanding. Chris could not have made the experience of buying a house any better.

The communication throughout the whole process was incredible. Chris offered advice when ever it was needed, made himself available at all times of the day (often very late at night - sorry Chris!) and followed up on questions with lightening speed. We were nervous buyers due to our circumstances of returning to the UK recently and needing a home quickly. Chris kept us informed and even reached out simply to let us know if there wasn't an update. This made a huge difference and kept us confident and reassured.

Chris' genuine care made us feel part of the local community before we even arrived. And our children look forward to seeing him like a family friend. We sincerely feel very very fortunate that Chris happened to be the agent for our house purchase. Thank you Chris!”

“Chris Mobbs is an exceptional agent we would recommend to anyone. He was so helpful from the very first interaction, listened to us and helped the process go through as smooth as possible. Chris made a normally stressful process fun, due to him working so hard and having the answers before we had to ask. Cant recommend him highly enough.”
