SITUATION

The property is situated in a picturesque location, set well back off a country lane with extensive farmland views, including a wonderful aspect towards Wenlock Edge to the front. The immediate countryside offers delightful walks and riding out opportunities along the network of lanes. A full range of amenities can be found in the popular market towns of Much Wenlock and Church Stretton, whilst more comprehensive amenities can be found in either Telford or Shrewsbury.

DESCRIPTION

The Larches offers a rare opportunity in the market to acquire an individual and appealing detached country property, which will particularly appeal to those seeking outbuildings and land for a range of purposes. The house enjoys a traditional layout, whilst being well proportioned, including two generous size reception rooms and three double bedrooms. There may also be scope to extend (subject to planning consent and further investigation), which will no doubt enhance the living accommodation.

Outside, the property is set off a delightful long driveway with a lovely parking courtyard and ample space for a number of vehicles. Set around are a versatile range of outbuildings, currently used for storage and equestrian use, however, they could with adaption offer scope for workshops, offices or leisure use (stpp). One of the current main outbuildings is divided into a stable barn with a central work area. There is in addition a former open Shippon, which would make an excellent workshop, with rear storage and potential for kennels adjacent.

There are also two grazing paddocks at the front and rear of the property itself. THE WHOLE EXTENDS TO APPROXIMATELY 0.97 ACRES.

There are a further 6.5 acres opposite the property on the other side of the land available by separate negotiation.
