STONE

A property developer of real substance

Introducing Laxton Properties' latest development: Fifteen exceptional homes in the village of Stone, Buckinghamshire, offering beautiful views of the Chiltern Hills

Our commitment to unparalleled standards is reflected in every aspect of these residences, from their exquisite design and meticulous craftsmanship to their sustainable and energy-efficient features.

Laxton Properties is an award-winning independent property development company, led by Giles Holder and Ed Whetham. Based in Berkhamsted, Hertfordshire, we are a homebuilder of choice in the South-East, successfully delivering positive development since 2008. Our focus and passion is creating attractive, high quality, well-built homes in desirable locations that offer a great place to live for residents and a positive legacy for landowners.

Typical Laxton Properties home features

- a* EPC A Rated Construction
- b* Solar Panels
- c* Attic Trusses (partial loft storage)
- d* Biodiversity Net Gain

- e* Sustainable Urban Drainage Systems (SUDS)
- f* Underfloor Heating
- g* Car Charging
- h* Air Source Heat Pumps

Taking sustainability seriously

We are passionate about delivering sustainable homes and minimising the environmental impact of development. Our commitment to leading the way in sustainability and energy efficiency is exemplified by our use of renewable energy sources. These include Air Source Heat Pumps, underfloor heating, high levels of insulation to minimise heat loss, sustainable urban drainage systems, electric car charging points and high-quality landscaping. All properties benefit from an 'A' Rated Energy Performance Certificate (EPC) as an assurance of excellent energy-efficiency.

Ten year warranty

For your peace of mind, all our new homes benefit from an independent 10-year insurance backed structural warranty. For full details, please refer to the warranty policy.

Attention to detail

Our passion for property development is reflected in our determination to deliver the highest quality design and finish in every one of our properties. Precision crafted with attention to even the smallest detail of form and function on homes that will stand the test of time.

A bigger picture

We are in the fortunate position to be able to provide financial support to a range of local and international causes and charities and have made the commitment to give away 10% of our net profit each year. As a part of this, all staff members have an annual giving allowance so that they can direct donations towards good causes that they are personally passionate about.

Unique & special

The village of Stone offers an enviable blend of timeless rural character and community spirit. While its origins can be traced back centuries, today Stone is best known for its peaceful ambience, natural beauty and highly desirable village lifestyle. Set within the picturesque Buckinghamshire countryside, Stone enjoys expansive views across rolling fields, scenic footpaths and bridleways; perfect for walking, cycling or simply unwinding in the fresh air. Its proximity to the Chiltern Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty brings a sense of tranquillity and exclusivity, with breathtaking landscapes right on the doorstep.

Stone is cherished for its warm, welcoming community spirit, centred around the local pubs, restaurants, sports clubs and village hall. Village hall events, seasonal fêtes and local gatherings create a friendly and inclusive atmosphere throughout the year.

For dining and socialising, several acclaimed country pubs are just moments away, including The Bugle Horn and The Harrow. The prestigious Hartwell House is also a popular destination for relaxed meals and special occasions.

With its blend of natural charm, scenic surroundings and a strong community feel, Stone offers an exceptional balance of countryside sophistication and modern convenience, an idyllic setting for a refined village lifestyle.

The location

Stone, Buckinghamshire enjoys a prime and well-connected location, ideal for day trips to the Chiltern Hills, Oxford, Waddesdon Manor or even London, offering a balance of countryside tranquillity and cultural exploration. The village provides essential amenities for daily life, including convenience store, petrol station, Indian restaurant, post office and local shops, with broader retail options close by in Aylesbury.

Families benefit from a local primary school, and Stone also lies within the catchment area of three local Grammar schools in Aylesbury, making it an especially sought-after location for families. The village hall serves as a hub for community events, classes and social gatherings, while nearby medical centres, pharmacies and dental practices ensure everyday needs are met with ease and convenience.

What you can expect

At Laxton Properties we strive to make your new home purchase and move as simple and straightforward as possible. We want to deliver to you a high-quality home that we can all be proud of. Our Customer Care Charter sets out the level of service, standards and experience that you can expect from Laxton Properties.

Before reserving your new home we will take you through the property specification, layout and building warranty. We will also explain to you any service charges if applicable.

The sales process will be friendly and informative and our company representatives will support and guide you through. They will also keep you updated on the progress of your new home.

Before you move into your new Laxton home you will be invited to attend a New Home Demonstration.

During this meeting you will be taken through your Home Information Pack and the workings of your new home will be explained to you. You will also have the opportunity to check your new home thoroughly.

On the day of legal completion a Laxton Properties representative will meet you at your home to welcome you. A formal handover will take place to give you your keys and to record all your utility meter readings.

Once you have moved in, Laxton Properties will remain available to deal with any queries that you may have about your new home.

Laxton Properties provides a 2-year warranty for any defects from the date on your warranty certificate. Your home will also be covered by a 10-year insurance backed warranty covering the structural integrity of your new home.
