Set against the historic skyline of St. Andrew's Church, The Courtyard Mews is a collection of five beautifully crafted two-bedroom homes that combine architectural clarity with environmental consciousness. Hidden within a peaceful, gated enclave, these residences offer an exclusive escape at the very heart of Farnham, a town where heritage and innovation go hand in hand.

These thoughtfully designed Mews Houses embody the quiet confidence of modern living, where clean lines, quality materials, and considered details come together to create spaces that feel both timeless and forward-thinking. With sustainability at their core, they provide not just a home but a lifestyle rooted in calm, connection, and care for the future.

Every residence has been crafted with intention. From the wrap-around glazing that welcomes natural light to the private courtyard gardens that offer moments of peace, these homes are designed to both inspire and adapt. The interiors feature a bespoke British-made timber kitchen with a sleek breakfast bar, generous dining and living spaces, and two well-proportioned bedrooms, all brought together in a future-focused layout that can evolve and adapt with your lifestyle and age.

Rooted in the spirit of Farnham's rich past but built for tomorrow, The Courtyard Mews is a celebration of refined simplicity, timeless quality, and quiet innovation.
