A modernised, spacious and well-arranged 1920's, detached family home. As part of a refurbishment, all external walls have been re-insulated, a new Worcester boiler installed, shower room upgraded, re-decoration throughout, along with three Victorian cast iron heaters restored and upcycled.

Careful consideration has gone into the upgrades, to ensure the improvements are in-keep with the buildings original character. The lower ground floor layout, offers the option to be annexed and used as a separate living quarters to the main house.

Lower ground floor composition: spacious sun room/conservatory, WC and bedroom/living area. Ground floor: shower room with shower, WC and sink basin, dining room, living room, kitchen and utility room. First floor: WC, three bedrooms and bathroom with bathtub, shower, WC and sink basin. Externally, the property has benefitted from a newly tarmaced driveway, offering ample private parking space.

Located in a popular residential area of Bangor and benefiting from easy access to transport routes in and out of the city, including the A55 dual carriageway which is only a five minute drive away. Within a mile of Ffriddoedd Road are two primary schools and two secondary.
