

An aerial photograph of the Upper Grange estate in Newington, Oxfordshire. The main house is a large, white, half-timbered Tudor-style building with a red-tiled roof and two prominent chimneys. It is surrounded by lush green lawns, manicured hedges, and mature trees. In the foreground, there is a circular stone terrace with a black metal gazebo. To the right, there is a large, curved stone building, likely a stable block, and a tennis court. The estate is set in a rural landscape with rolling green fields and a small stream in the background under a blue sky with scattered clouds.

DESCRIPTION

Upper Grange is approached along a long private gravelled drive. The house, which is Grade II listed, is believed to date back to the early 17th century, with later additions, including the striking vaulted kitchen, which was added around 30 years ago, connecting the house with an adjacent barn. The panelled dining hall, staircase, crossed beamed ceilings, ancient fireplaces and braced doors date back to the reign of James I and reflect the rich history of this house.

The entrance hall opens to the impressive dining hall with its panelled walls and huge fireplace with herringbone brick detailing. The triple aspect drawing room has fabulous views out over the river. Both rooms have doors opening to the gardens. Also off the dining hall is a cosy snug, a spacious study and the wine cellar. The vaulted kitchen with two huge oak A frames, has a stone fireplace and features painted wooden cupboards beneath stone worktops. A large island houses a double stainless steel sink and appliances include a four door Aga, Miele oven and induction hob. Doors open to the front and rear gardens with views over the river. A walk-in pantry lies just off.

What was the adjacent barn, now houses a large rear hallway. Just off are the family/sitting room with bookshelves spanning one wall, and a large utility/boot room with ample storage. A staircase rises to a small galleried room, ideal as a teenage study room or additional storage. A further staircase rises to private guest bedroom suite with its own sitting room. The bathroom features a double ended slipper bath and separate shower.

The main staircase rises from the dining hall with a half landing and window seat overlooking the garden. The triple aspect principal bedroom, spanning the depth of the house, has stunning views and a fireplace with stove within. Just off is a large dressing room with built-in wardrobes to two walls. Beyond, the bathroom features a double ended slipper bath and affords wonderful views of the gardens.

There are two further bedrooms and a family bathroom on this floor. Stairs lead to the second floor where there are three further bedrooms, one with an en suite bathroom and dressing room, and a further shower room.

COTTAGES

The two cottages both have kitchen/living rooms, one bedroom and a bathroom with shower over. Both have private gardens to the rear with their own parking space. One cottage is presently let on an Assured Shorthold Tenancy.

ENTERTAINMENT/GAMES BARN

Situated just across the courtyard from the house is the vaulted games barn. Four sets of French doors open to the pool and its terrace. Presently this space is divided by oak framed sliding glass doors and is split between an entertaining space and a gym. However, it offers great flexibility. To the far end is a changing room, double shower and cloakroom.

Entertainment Barn

OUTSIDE

The stunning gardens feature both formal and informal areas as well as meadow, paddocks and a small copse.

There is a large Wisteria to the rear, the gardens have deep borders with mature trees throughout including Poplar, Ash, Maple and Cedar. The tennis court lies just beyond with access to the Games Barn. A gravelled parking area gives access to the house and cottages, with a parterre box garden, a pond with a gate to a further enclosed garden with Victorian bandstand. Bordering the drive is a large paddock (with independent gated access) with, beyond the water meadow, willow bank walks and the orchard which contains apple, pear, plum and greengage. There is a two car garage, with two sets of double wood doors, and a workshop at the rear.
