The Property

This new build two double bedroomed semi detached bungalow is hidden away in a quiet and convenient position just off the Bedale town centre.

The property opens into an impressive open plan living area incorporating sitting, dining and kitchen areas, plus high ceilings with exposed wood beams and French doors out to the private garden an ideal space for entertaining or for cosy evenings. The sitting area has room for sofas and coffee tables with a media wall for hanging a TV plus a door out to a mediterranean style terrace at the side. The dining area has space for a six person table and chairs and is just off the kitchen which comprises of a range of shaker style wall and base units with a work surface over having a matching upstand and a single sink. Appliances include a four ring electric hob with an extractor hood over plus an electric oven under and an integrated washing machine, fridge freezer and a slimline dishwasher.

A rear hall leads to the two double bedrooms and the bathroom. Bedroom two is perfect for a guest double or could be used as an at home study. The hall then has a step down for bedroom one which is a fantastic bright double to the rear of the bungalow with a skylight and window that looks out to the terrace. The bathroom comprises of a panelled bath with a shower screen and fixed and handheld shower heads, a push flush W.C and a washbasin sat onto a vanity unit.

Outside

To the front is an attractive lawned garden with Mediterranean style seating areas with gated access from The Old Pickle House car park. The garage provides off street parking and storage with double timber doors at the front, lighting and a personal door at the rear opening into the garden.

Location

Bedale is a market town and civil parish in the district of Hambleton, North Yorkshire. Listed in the Domesday Book as part of Catterick wapentake, markets have been held in the town since 1251 and the regular Tuesday market still takes place today. The town has a range of schooling opportunities for children up to the age of 16 years and also boasts a leisure centre with a swimming pool and gym, a football club, golf club and being the gateway to the Yorkshire Dales, there are plenty of scenic walks and country pursuits close by too. Bedale has excellent road links including the new bypass, and Junction 51 of the A1M provides access to the national motorway network. Other transport links close by are the main line railway station in Northallerton, Durham Tees Valley and Leeds Bradford airports are both within an hour's drive.
