- Unique and distinctive three-bedroom home forming part of an attractive chapel conversion.
- Stunning open-plan living, dining and kitchen area featuring original stained glass and leaded windows
- Wealth of character throughout, including exposed timbers and bespoke display shelving.
- Sought-after location on the popular western fringe of Shrewsbury, close to excellent schools, the Royal Shrewsbury Hospital and the town centre
- Enclosed front garden with patio, established shrubs, and off-road parking for two vehicles.
- Beautifully converted to offer stylish, practical and comfortable modern living while retaining its historic charm.

A unique and distinctive residence forming part of a beautifully converted chapel, this exceptional home effortlessly combines historic charm with modern-day practicality. A wealth of original character features has been carefully retained, creating a home of immense style and individuality while offering comfortable, contemporary living.

Ideally situated on the ever-popular western fringe of Shrewsbury, the property is perfectly positioned for excellent state and independent schools, the Royal Shrewsbury Hospital, convenient access to the town centre, and excellent transport and road links.

The spacious accommodation begins with an inviting entrance hall featuring bespoke book and display shelving, together with a cloakroom and separate utility room. The heart of the home is the stunning open-plan living, dining and kitchen area, where impressive original stained glass and leaded windows create a striking focal point, flooding the space with natural light and enhancing its unique character.

To the first floor are three well-proportioned bedrooms, each showcasing attractive exposed timbers that reflect the building's heritage. An en-suite shower room and well-appointed family bathroom completes the first-floor accommodation. The property benefits from gas-fired central heating throughout.
