

Inside The Home

Entry is via a welcoming porch, the property immediately retains a wealth of character, with attractive stained-glass detailing to the entrance door and an accompanying stained-glass window above. The hallway provides access to the principal reception rooms, with a spacious lounge situated to the right. This well-proportioned room benefits from a feature bay window and gas fire, creating a comfortable and inviting living space. The front and rear elevations have also been internally wall insulated, providing an additional benefit to the property. A separate dining room offers excellent versatility and could equally be utilised as a second reception room, home office or family room, depending on the purchaser's requirements. To the rear is the kitchen, fitted with a Belfast sink and Country Chef Aga. An extension added by the previous owners provides valuable additional living space, featuring a skylight and double patio doors opening onto the rear yard. Currently used as a playroom, this versatile room has previously served as a breakfast/dining room and offers a range of potential uses. The kitchen also provides access to a substantial cellar, offering an impressive amount of additional space. The walls are boarded and, subject to the necessary permissions and regulations, the cellar may offer potential for future conversion or further use.

To the first floor are two well-proportioned bedrooms and a family bathroom. The master bedroom is positioned to the front of the property and benefits from the attractive bay window, while the second bedroom overlooks the rear.

The second floor provides a further three bedrooms and a second bathroom, creating an impressive five-bedroom arrangement across the upper floors. All three second-floor bedrooms benefit from Velux windows, providing natural light and adding to the character of these rooms.

The property has been well maintained and improved, having been decorated throughout and benefiting from updated flooring. The roof is new, while the loft space has been insulated, although it is currently unboarded. The boiler is approximately eight years old and has been serviced annually, offering further peace of mind.

With its generous and versatile accommodation, this property would make an excellent home for a growing family. Its central location places a range of local schools and everyday amenities within easy reach,
