Versatile Detached Home | Flexible 2/3 Bedroom Layout | Garage & Gated Parking

Situated in a quiet residential location on the edge of Rushden, this well-presented detached home offers flexible accommodation, excellent parking and a private garden, making it ideal for a wide range of buyers.

The property's versatile layout currently provides two bedrooms and multiple reception spaces but could easily function as a three-bedroom home, depending on individual requirements. A ground floor bedroom adds further flexibility, making the property particularly appealing to those seeking single-level living, multi-generational accommodation or dedicated space for home working.

The accommodation is bright and well maintained throughout, offering practical living space that can adapt to changing needs. Outside, the property benefits from gated driveway parking, a detached garage and a private rear garden, creating a secure and enjoyable environment for relaxing and entertaining.

Alpine Road enjoys a desirable position close to the edge of town, providing a peaceful setting whilst remaining within easy reach of local shops, services and everyday amenities. The location also offers excellent access to Rushden, Wellingborough and surrounding road networks, making it a convenient choice for commuters.

Detached homes offering this level of flexibility, privacy and parking are rarely available at this price point, making this an excellent opportunity for downsizers, families and buyers looking for a property that can adapt to their lifestyle.

Early viewing is highly recommended to appreciate the space, versatility and location this superb home has to offer.
