Scott Place

Scott Place - Dreaming of retiring to a close-knit community, where everything you need is within easy reach? Your dreams can come true at McCarthy & Stone Retirement Living development in Lichfield. We have created a welcoming and sociable environment within our luxurious gated community, which is exclusively available to the over 60's. With 21 one bedroom and 23 two bedrooms, as a resident you can truly get to know your neighbours. The communal spaces, like the Communal lounge and landscaped gardens, are the perfect setting to meet, socialise and make new friends.

Every tastefully decorated apartment is thoughtfully designed to make maximum use of space, with Sky TV connection points in the living room and main bedroom. The kitchen is fully fitted with an oven, hob and hood, and fridge freezer, and the property has energy efficient heating. The safety and security of residents is of utmost importance to us at McCarthy & Stone, which is why we equip every apartment with a camera entry system, burglar alarms, a 24 hour emergency call system and smoke detectors. Lifts to all floors ensure that those with mobility difficulties can keep their independence well into retirement. Our on-site House Manager is always available to assist residents and deal with any issues or queries.

The city of Lichfield has everything a retiree could wish for - from historic attractions like the famous Cathedral, to convenient supermarkets close to the development. Make yourself at home in this welcoming city, where all the amenities and attractions are within easy reach of your apartment.
