Swan Close is a small residential cul de sac located on the southern side of the village. South Chailey is a rural village lying approximately five/six miles to the north of Lewes and approximately six/seven miles to the south east of Haywards Heath and Burgess Hill. The village has a shop with post office facilities, a well regarded secondary school and is surrounded by open countryside.

The village of Chailey Green (one mile north) has a church, a pub and a primary school. Plumpton Green (two and a half miles to the south west) has a railway station as does Cooksbridge. The towns of Haywards Heath, Burgess Hill and Lewes all have extensive shopping centres. Fast rail services to London (Victoria and London Bridge both approximately 45 minutes) can be found at Haywards Heath.

DIRECTIONS

If you are approaching South Chailey on the A275 from the north, Swan Close can be found on the right hand side on the southern edge of the village
