This semi-detached three-bedroom family home is ideally located within the highly sought-after Roe Green area of Kingsbury and offers excellent potential for further extension, subject to the necessary planning permissions.

The property benefits from off-street parking, a large outbuilding to the rear, generously proportioned living accommodation, and a useful loft space, while also providing an exciting opportunity for buyers to modernise and create a home tailored to their own style and requirements.

Set within this popular and family-oriented neighbourhood, the home is perfectly placed for access to several highly regarded local schools, including St Robert Southwell Roman Catholic Primary School and Oliver Goldsmith Primary School, both within approximately half a mile, together with Kingsbury High School just a quarter of a mile away.

Fairfields Crescent is conveniently situated just off Roe Green and within easy reach of Kingsbury Town Centre, offering a wide variety of shopping amenities, cafés, and everyday conveniences. Excellent transport connections are available, with Kingsbury Underground Station (Jubilee Line) providing direct access into Central London in approximately 20–25 minutes. Multiple bus routes are also easily accessible nearby, while Colindale Station (Northern Line) is within approximately one mile.

The area is further enhanced by an abundance of green open spaces, including Roe Green Park, offering tennis and basketball courts alongside a children's playground, and Fryent Country Park, known for its scenic walking trails and countryside views. No onward chain!
