Deceptive character home in thriving Suffolk village.....Charming much improved 3 bedroomed period house built as a detached house in the 17th century enjoying a prominent setting in the heart of a thriving Suffolk village.

Understood to have been built in the early 17th century as a detached house and later attached on one gable end to the neighbouring 19th century cottage, this delightful grade II listed house has been much improved in more recent years with works carried out including a particularly attractive re-thatched roof, new electric heating system, replaced kitchens and bathrooms and redecoration throughout. The house has been (up until recently) used as two adjoining houses providing a rental income for two properties and could easily lend its self to prospective buyers seeking one larger houses or two seperate properties.

Extending to approximately 1700 sqft, the accommodation is offered with no onward chain and currently comprises three main reception rooms with Inglenook fireplaces and exposed beams, two rear halls leading to the two kitchens, shower room and bathroom and with three double bedrooms on the first floor, completing the accommodation.

Outside

To the rear is an enclosed garden currently divided by fencing suitable as two properties however can easily be changed as one larger garden by removing the fencing.

Location

The property enjoys a prominent setting within the heart of the village. Ixworth is an attractive and thriving Suffolk village offering a range of local facilities rarely found in a village of today, including a doctors surgery, shop, two public houses, two Churches, primary school and a free-school. Within 7 miles is the picturesque, thriving market town of Bury St Edmunds which brings together the old and the new. The town boasts a great collection of venues for eating, drinking, shopping, and relaxing, making it a great place to live, work, visit and study.

Bury St Edmunds, with its impressive market every Wednesday and Saturday, is nestled in the heart of Suffolk and arguably the crown of East Anglia. It is known for the Abbey Gardens, a ruined abbey right in the town centre. Bury is a very popular destination for locals and tourists to the area. Visit the old side of the town to see the Cathedral in all its glory, the medieval quarter of the town and the Abbey Gardens itself, or browse the newer side of the town to discover its large assortment of shops, restaurants and entertainment centres.

Directions
