Introduction

6 Woodside View is a dormer bungalow offering adaptable 2 to 3 bedroom accommodation, positioned in a particularly attractive spot on the edge of Clun. Situated opposite the doctor's surgery, the home benefits from convenient access to local amenities while still enjoying a peaceful residential setting. The property has not been modernised for several decades and now presents a superb opportunity for renovation. With gardens to both the front and rear, and off-road parking, the bungalow offers a strong foundation for buyers wishing to create a bespoke home in one of Clun's most appealing locations. Its combination of potential, flexibility, and village position makes it a compelling project for those looking to add value and design a home to their own taste.

The accommodation comprises: entrance hall, dining room/bedroom, living/dining room, utility room, conservatory, bathroom and two bedrooms on the first floor.

Property description

The front porch leads into the central hall with stairs rising to the first floor and then doors leading off to the various accommodation. On the ground floor you find a shower room to the right with a shower, WC and sink to the right a dining room which could be a third bedroom or home office. To the rear is the living room overlooking the garden with open fireplace and cupboards either side. From the living room a door leads to the kitchen with base units, space for an oven and fridge/freezer and a door into a pantry cupboard. From the kitchen a further door leads to the back hall/porch and a door into the utility space which is very handy for storage and then a garden room is back porch/conservatory on the back of the property overlooking the garden.

Gardens and parking

The property has gardens to the front and rear with a gated driveway, parking and a detached garage/workshop space with double doors to the front. There is a pedestrian gate to the front garden via a side gate leading from the street and onto the lawned area and bordered by mature shrubs. A gate leads through to the rear garden where you find a shed, green house a access to the rear of the property. This area is mainly laid to lawn with shrubs borders and a bed in the centre.

Location

Tranquil, pretty community overlooked by spectacular castle ruins. Most people think of Clun as a village, but it has the distinction of being granted a very early town charter in the 14th century. It was also mentioned in the Domesday Book and there is archaeological evidence of habitation back as far as 5000 years ago with Neolithic and Bronze Age tools on display in the town's museum. Overlooking the town is the ruined Borderland castle, perched high on two ice age mounds with the River Clun running past it, makes a scenic picnic spot. Clun is located in the Shropshire's Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty and draws many visitors to the town to enjoy its hospitality, wonderful walking and scenery. Sitting on the fringe of Clun the property enjoys the some of local shops and amenities and a primary school but more extensive shopping is available in Knighton, Bishops Castle, Craven Arms and Ludlow and train stations on the Heart of Wales train line which links the west coast of Wales, mid Wales and English mainlines is located at Knighton, Bucknell, Hopton Heath and Craven Arms.

Services

The property has mains electricity, drainage and water. The property has oil fired heating.

Agents notes

The property is of timber-frame construction with a brick outer single skin, installed as part of a refurbishment programme in the 1990s by a local housing association (TBV). Buyers should satisfy themselves that their proposed lender is happy with the construction type before viewing.
