Skilfully extended and renovated in 2021, Sunflower Cottage is discreetly located just off Ampleforth's main street, enjoying a notably tranquil setting within easy walking distance of the village's amenities. This charming period home is elegantly finished in a contemporary country style, with well-proportioned rooms flooded with west-facing light. It would make an excellent primary residence or a convenient lock-up-and-leave second home.

Currently operated as a holiday let, Sunflower Cottage is offered with the option to continue and expand the existing business. It comes fully furnished with bookings in place, and occupancy rates.

Turnover figures are available on request. <https://www.beautifulscapes.co.uk/property/sunflower-cottage/>

Sunflower Cottage retains a number of original features, including painted ceiling beams, oak doors with iron latches, and two fireplaces, one with a time-honoured lintel. These period details are complemented by high-specification modern fittings and open, light-filled living spaces that connect seamlessly to the garden.

The hall/study includes an open fireplace with a stone surround and a practical home office area tucked behind the dog-leg staircase. The 23 ft sitting room features a wood-burning stove as its focal point and doors leading out to the garden terrace. The stylish kitchen/dining room comfortably accommodates a family dining table and benefits from French doors opening onto the stone-flagged terrace. The kitchen is fitted with underfloor heating, Shaker-style cabinets, integrated appliances, a gas hob, and extensive work surfaces.

A side lobby with garden access leads to a cloakroom/WC and a fitted utility/laundry room.

Upstairs, a long split-level landing with storage cupboards provides access to all three bedrooms. The principal bedroom features a luxurious en suite bathroom, while the remaining two bedrooms rise into the roof space and are served by a well-appointed shower room. The first floor has cast iron column radiators and louvre shutters on the west facing windows.

Outside

Sunflower Cottage is approached via a shared drive off East End, which is also used by two neighbouring cottages. Timber gates open onto a gravel drive that runs past a retaining dry-stone wall and leads to parking for up to three vehicles directly in front of the house. Upper and lower paved terraces face west, overlooking a generous lawn bordered by well-stocked beds and shrubs. The garden is private and sheltered, enclosed on two sides by mature hedging.

Environs

The village enjoys a busy community life and is well served with amenities that include a primary school, churches and a bus service as well as a village store/post office, GP practice, two pubs and a coffee shop. It is home to the eponymous co-educational public school and is surrounded by beautiful and well-wooded countryside with public footpaths. The market town of Helmsley is close by, and the North York Moors National Park sits alongside. Within half an hour is Thirsk railway station with its mainline East Coast/Transpennine services, and York city centre lies some forty-five minutes' drive to the south.

Directions

Entering Ampleforth on Jerry Carr Bank from Wass, passing The White Swan on the right, keep driving through the village for some 300m until you see 'Sunflower Cottage' sign on the wall on your right. Down the driveway it is your first left.
