Location

Winchburgh is a growing and well-connected community to the west of Edinburgh, combining modern family living with an expanding range of amenities, excellent schooling and attractive outdoor spaces. The village offers everyday shopping including Sainsbury's and a range of local businesses, cafes and services, while the education campus provides modern primary and secondary schooling alongside the Winchburgh Sport & Wellbeing Hub, with its swimming pool and sports facilities. Outdoor recreation is also well catered for, with the Union Canal, Winchburgh Marina and nearby green spaces providing attractive routes for walking and cycling. The marina has become a focal point within the growing community, while local clubs, leisure facilities and play areas add to the village's family friendly appeal. For commuters, Winchburgh is conveniently positioned for Edinburgh and the wider central belt, with regular bus services and easy access to the M8/M9 motorway network, Edinburgh airport and the major employment areas to the west of the capital. Linlithgow, South Queensferry, Livingston, Kirkliston and Broxburn are all readily accessible, providing a wider choice of shopping, dining and leisure amenities.
