About this property

Set in Cheadle Hulme's most sought after residential pockets, Longsight Lane is a property that manages to blend modern living with traditional elegance with its contrasts of a modern kitchen neighbouring the spacious dining/living space that spans over 19 feet in length before reaching the underfloor heated conservatory and an additional downstairs W/C. Back down the front of the property, the ground floor principle bedroom along with en-suite is accessible for all age ranges making this beautiful home even more inviting. Heading upstairs you will notice the secondary bedroom sat with a stunning outlook of the enclosed private garden. The fitted wardrobe space is also ideal for plenty of storage and does not sacrifice the well-proportioned bedroom dimensions. This property includes a contemporary main bathroom which has a bath/shower so that you will never have to choose between one or the other. The third bedroom provides superb views of the countryside to the front elevation and is ideal for a bedroom or home office. This property is completely enclosed whether it is the greenery surrounding the garden or the gated access to your courtyard garden at the front of the property. The driveway provides ample car parking for friends and family and the set back position of the property provides an excellent degree of privacy. To the rear of the property is a private west facing garden with a large log cabin which is currently used for storage/workshop but this useful garden room could be adapted to suit any buyers needs as it is well insulated and includes electrics. No onward chain.
