Walness, Burley Gate, HEREFORD HR1 3QS

WALNESS joins the by-road leading from Burley Gate to Bishops Frome just a comfortable walk away from the shop, village hall, primary school and the bus stop for the regular Hereford/Bromyard service. It is about 6 miles from Bromyard, with all its local services, 9 from Hereford and 11 Leominster. It is in the parish of Much Cowarne which has its own interesting historic church.

This large detached bungalow is surrounded by the most attractively laid out gardens with many ornamental and flowering shrubs and trees, lawns and paved terrace.

From the rear and the garden room, there are superb views to the south over the rolling east Herefordshire countryside to the Stoke Edith and Tarrington Hills.

The bungalow has a uPVC frame garden room with solid roof, uPVC frame double glazed windows, full oil-fired central heating to radiators with thermostats, two shower rooms, fitted carpets, 31ft kitchen/dining/sitting area, 20ft lounge and attached large double garage/workshop. The utility room, shower room and fourth bedroom, all on the west side of the bungalow, would make an ideal 'granny annexe'.

On the south facing roof, there are 16 solar panels. Outside, there is a good-sized parking area, summerhouse and useful shed.

N. B. Only a viewing will allow one to appreciate the spacious accommodation, the gardens and spectacular views from the rear.
