The Cottage, Leafield Road, Crawley, Oxfordshire OX29 9TR

An attractive detached stone built cottage with charm and character including a timber and brick finish to the windows and exposed beams. The property is situated in the heart of the sought after village of Crawley, which is conveniently located between Witney and Burford on the edge of The Cotswolds. The cottage has been improved significantly by the current owners, with a great attention to detail, and is extremely well presented with impressive accommodation throughout, including an entrance to the dining room and a separate living room with a fireplace and wood burner, a fitted kitchen, downstairs cloakroom and an appealing conservatory overlooking the gardens to the side and rear, together with 3 bedrooms and a shower room to the first floor. The property is set in private and mature gardens which include a paved area and steps up to the lawns with shrubs and flowerbeds. There is gas central heating, double glazing and the added benefit of a gravel driveway providing off road parking, plus storage sheds.

Crawley

The village of Crawley is located only 2 miles from Witney. It is attractively positioned on the River Windrush, and on the cusp of The Cotswolds. The local pub restaurant The Lamb Inn is on your doorstep and is within a few minutes drive of Witney and Burford.

Directions

Leave our office in Market Square and proceed along Corn Street, taking the third exit off the roundabout onto Tower Hill. Turn left at the top of the hill onto Burford Road. Follow this road along, turning right into Dry Lane towards Crawley. Pass through the lights at the bridge over the River Windrush, and proceed to the centre of the village turning left into Leafield Road. The Cottage can then be found on the right hand side opposite The Lamb Inn.
