Producing a gross rental income of £20,000 for the current 2025/26 academic years, with an increase to £20,880 for 2026/27 (£105, £115, £110, £105 per person, per week over 48 weeks), 18 Lower Street offers an attractive, ready-made HMO investment in a highly sought-after Bangor location.

Located just off Bangor High Street, this four-bedroom property enjoys an elevated position with impressive views across the city and towards the sea, enhancing its appeal to the student market. The layout comprises a contemporary living space and kitchen on the lower ground floor, four well-proportioned double bedrooms, including a converted attic bedroom with spectacular views, all maintained to a good standard.

To the rear, there is a patio area suited for outdoor seating, while the sale includes all furniture and fittings, allowing for immediate continuity of letting.

Bangor continues to support a strong rental market, with around 8,100 full-time students recorded in the latest official figures, reinforcing consistent demand for quality HMO accommodation.

A well-located, income-generating property with proven rental performance and ongoing demand.
