Kenilworth Road, TW15

Step into this impressive family home through a welcoming entrance hall, perfect for greeting guests. The ground floor boasts two spacious reception rooms, a separate dining room, and a well-appointed kitchen leading into a bright conservatory ideal for entertaining, with potential to be opened up into a larger kitchen space.

A substantial garage offers further scope for conversion or extension above (subject to planning permission), creating an additional bedroom if desired. Upstairs, the property features four generously sized bedrooms, a modern family bathroom, and a spacious landing, all contributing to a wonderful sense of space and balance throughout.

Outside, a large family garden provides the perfect setting for children to play, summer barbecues, or simply relaxing. Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate all this home has to offer.
