About The Property

Looking for a three-bedroom cottage in the village of Llechryd with a garden, off-road parking, and plenty of scope to modernise? This property offers solid potential in a popular West Wales location close to Cardigan Bay and the coast.

Located in the ever-popular village of Llechryd, just a short drive from Cardigan and the coast of Cardigan Bay, this traditional three-bedroom cottage offers an appealing opportunity for those looking to create a comfortable home in West Wales. The property benefits from off-road parking on its own driveway, a garage, and a useful store room, along with a good-sized garden area providing plenty of outdoor space.

Inside, the ground floor layout flows well, offering a mix of traditional and practical spaces. The kitchen, fitted with a log burner, forms the heart of the home and has space for a small dining area. A separate dining room sits adjacent, ideal for family meals or entertaining, while the lounge provides a comfortable everyday living space with room for seating and personal touches.

From the main hallway, a staircase leads to the first floor, where there are three bedrooms and a family bathroom. The bedrooms are well-proportioned and enjoy natural light, offering scope for redecoration and modernisation.

To the side of the property, an additional hallway connects to a shower room, the garage, and the store room, making it practical for use as a utility or workshop area. This layout lends itself well to various uses – from hobby space to potential home-working area, subject to any necessary consents.

Outside, the gardens frame the property nicely, offering green space for planting, sitting out, or creating a kitchen garden. With its village setting, off-road parking, and scope to modernise throughout, this home has the foundations for a lovely long-term home close to local amenities, the River Teifi, and the coast.

OTHER COSTS TO BE AWARE OF WHEN PURCHASING A PROPERTY:

LAND TRANSACTION TAX (LTT): You may need to pay this if you buy property or land in Wales, this is on top of the purchase price. This will vary on each property and the cost of this can be checked using the Land Transaction Tax Calculator on the Gov.Wales website <https://www.gov.wales/land-transaction-tax-calculator>.

BUYING AN ADDITIONAL PROPERTY: If you own more than one residential property, you could be liable to pay a higher rate of Land Transaction Tax (sometimes called Second-Home Land Transaction Tax). This will vary on each property and the cost of this can be checked using the Land Transaction Tax Calculator on the Gov.Wales website
<https://www.gov.wales/land-transaction-tax-calculator> - we will also ensure you are aware of this when you make your offer on a property. Also, properties in our areas are subject to higher rates of Council Tax for additional/second homes. Please ensure you check with the local authority provider as to what this will be prior to making an offer.

MONEY LAUNDERING REGULATIONS - PROOF OF ID AND PROOF OF FUNDS: As part of our legal obligations to HMRC for Money Laundering Regulations, the successful purchaser(s) will be required to complete ID checks to prove their identity. Documents required for this will be a valid photo ID (e.g. Passport or Photo Driving Licence) and proof of address (e.g. a recent Utility Bill/Bank Statement from the last 3 months). Proof of funds will also be required, including any bank or savings statements from the last 3 months & a mortgage agreement in principle document, if a mortgage is required. Please ensure you have these in place at the point you make an offer on a property so as to save any delays.

CAPITAL GAINS TAX: If you are selling an additional property, or a property with land, you may be liable to pay Capital Gains on the gains made on the property. Please discuss this with an accountant to find out if any tax will be liable when you sell your home. More information can be found on the Gov.UK website here - <https://www.gov.uk/capital-gains-tax>
