This exceptional Detached former show home(1758Sq') is situated in the prestigious Archers Park, Sittingbourne. You get the timeless appeal of a 1920s/30s style home, yet the property is only 10 years old combining classic aesthetic charm with all the high energy efficiency benefits of modern construction, this unique blend makes it hard to beat. The interior features a spacious open-plan kitchen/dining area with integrated appliances, plus a separate utility room, en-suite and family bathroom. Externally, the professionally landscaped garden is impressive, with artificial lawn, a stylish patio, and a covered seating area wired for television and prepared for hot tub installation.

Ideal for commuters, the home is just minutes from the A249, providing easy access to the M2 and M20 motorways. Sittingbourne station is a short walk or 5-minute drive away, with high-speed services to St Pancras. Local pubs and supermarkets make this a prime location for families.PA1009
