SITUATION

East Coker is one of the prettiest villages in South Somerset with a large number of fine stone and thatched houses / cottages, along with the very popular Helyar Arms public House. The village supports an active population with a parish church. The A303 is about 11 miles away linking with the M3 to London and the M5 at Taunton to the South West, south Wales and the Midlands. Mainline railway services to London / Waterloo from Yeovil. Yeovil with its wider range of amenities lies approximately 3 miles distant.

DIRECTIONS

what3words:///kitchen.readjust.hacking

Leaving the centre of Yeovil on the A30, proceed in a westerly direction up Hendford Hill and at the mini roundabout take the second exit. Continue on the A30 and pass the Key Store (convenience shop) and turn immediately left onto Sandhurst Road. Proceed for approximately 2 miles and at the main junction in the village of East Coker turn right. Drive through the village until reaching the Forester Arms, turn left opposite and follow the track to the end and the bungalow is the last one on the right
