Portland Way, Calne £290,000

A beautifully presented three bedroom link-detached home in a popular location, a short walk from the town amenities, schools and countryside.

The ground floor offers an entrance hall, spacious living room and modern kitchen dining room with French doors that open to the rear garden. Upstairs there are three bedrooms, two of which are doubles, and a modern family bathroom. The home is in immaculate condition, having been well cared for by the present owners.

Externally, there is a good size southerly enclosed rear garden with a raised decked area, a pleasant front garden and a driveway offering parking in front of a single garage with power and light.

The property benefits from the convenience of gas central heating and double glazing throughout.

Calne and Surrounding Areas

Calne is a market town steeped in history, with a rich heritage of traditional industries including textile production and Wiltshire ham. Calne is the birthplace of Joseph Priestley, the discoverer of oxygen, who conducted his experiments at nearby Bowood House. Idyllic countryside surrounds the town with brilliant walking routes and nearby villages with abundant traditional country pubs. While in the town, you'll find cafes, a microbrewery, and a variety of independent and high-street shops, supermarkets, and eateries. There is a good selection of local primary schools and secondary schools. There are GP and Dental surgeries with three leisure centres with swimming pools, fitness suites, and health classes. There is also the ever-popular Calne Football, Rugby, Cricket and Tennis Clubs, and a great cycling and running community to name a few. To the east down the A4 you will pass Cherhill White Horse, Silbury Hill, Historic Avebury, and then onto Marlborough. To the west is Bowood, Chippenham, Bath and the M4 westbound. To the north is Royal Wootton Bassett and the M4 eastbound.

Location

The home is located in a quiet area just a gentle stroll from the multiple facilities of the town centre, schools, recreation ground, the Heritage Quarter with Norman Church, quaint shops of Church Street and the River Marden. A popular residential area with a strong community feel and with countryside walks nearby.
