IF YOU LIVED HERE...

From the moment you arrive, the home makes a warm and confident first impression. A neat walled front garden with classic black railings leads to the front door, tucked under a charming brick archway—handy cover when you're juggling keys in the rain.

Inside, the reception room stretches the full width of the property, offering a bright, sociable space. A bay window at the front pours in natural light, while a striking ornate fireplace anchors the room with a touch of period charm. Built-in alcove shelves and low cabinetry provide stylish storage for books, artwork, or your favourite treasures. The décor is calm and contemporary, with soft neutrals and plush carpeting underfoot.

The first double bedroom is dressed in soft dove-grey tones with a window bringing in gentle natural light—perfect for winding down or easing into the day. The warm carpet adds a cosy, comforting feel.

A few steps away, the galley kitchen is sleek and efficient. Glossy white cabinetry and chunky wooden worktops keep things streamlined, while integrated appliances make for a clutter-free finish. A glazed door opens to the shared outdoor space, bringing in extra light and ventilation.

The bathroom features a classic white suite, including a floating sink with storage below, and a full-sized bath with an overhead shower. Sandstone-style tiles add warmth, and two deep cupboards offer ample room for towels and laundry.

At the rear of the home, the second (and slightly larger) double bedroom looks out onto greenery through twin windows. An entire wall of built-in wardrobes makes storage effortless—ideal for anyone with a serious wardrobe or an eye for organisation.

A WORD FROM THE OWNER...

"This is a lovely, friendly neighbourhood street and I've loved the ease of access to shops and the brilliant transport links. The garden is a great quiet oasis with the brook providing added privacy from the gardens opposite. It gets lovely sunshine and is sheltered by the mature magnolia which is spectacular in spring."
