St. Hilda Street Headland Hartlepool TS24 0QZ

A beautifully positioned, Grade II listed, end terraced family home which connects to South Crescent in a popular and often admired part of the historic Headland. This late Georgian build occupies an enviable position with a stunning outlook over the Heugh Breakwater. With a deceptively spacious and versatile layout spanning five floors, an internal viewing is essential to appreciate the space on offer. The accommodation features 'sash' style double glazing, gas central heating, four bedrooms, two reception rooms, two kitchen areas, two bathrooms and two useful wash rooms. Located in the Headland conservation area and within a short stroll of amenities and transport links.

The full layout comprises: spacious entrance hall with stairs to the first floor and access to a generous kitchen/diner, the ground floor sitting room includes a log burner fire and gives access to the rear lobby with additional working kitchen (which could be converted for a variety of uses) and the guest cloakroom/WC. To the first floor is an impressive first floor lounge with stunning views over the Heugh Breakwater. The main family bathroom is located on the first floor with a roll-top style bath and walk-in laundry room. To the second floor are three bedrooms, bedrooms one and two benefitting from en-suite wash rooms, and to the top floor is a further attic bedroom with en-suite bathroom. To the basement is a large reception room which would make an ideal home gym/office, alongside a useful workshop, walk-in pantry cupboard and working sauna.

Externally is a low maintenance front garden which offers a pleasant outdoor space. A rare opportunity in a beautiful part of the Headland with unrivalled sea views. An internal viewing is a must to appreciate the combined space, position and location on offer.
