A well-presented ground-floor apartment in a location that makes everyday life remarkably easy.

This one-bedroom home combines straightforward ground-floor living with allocated off-road parking, a communal garden and a position within a short walk of both Ashley Cross and Parkstone railway station.

The large lounge/diner gives the apartment a comfortable main living space, with plenty of room to relax and dine. The separate kitchen has useful storage and comes with white goods included, while the bathroom is fitted with a shower over the bath.

- Ground-floor position provides straightforward access and easy day-to-day living without relying on stairs
- One comfortable double bedroom offering a practical and manageable home for a single occupier or couple
- Large lounge/diner gives you proper space to relax, eat and live without the room feeling dominated by furniture
- Separate kitchen with white goods included keeps the essentials simple from day one
- Bathroom with shower over bath provides both everyday convenience and flexibility
- Allocated off-road parking gives you your own dedicated space rather than relying on finding somewhere nearby
