Desborough Close, Bengeo, Herts, SG14 3EG

Asking Price £640,000

This three-bedroom semi-detached house is for sale in Bengeo, offering well-arranged accommodation suitable for a range of buyers. Internally, the property provides two reception rooms, allowing separate areas for living and dining, along with a practical kitchen and a family bathroom.

Located in a lovely & quiet residential area of Bengeo, the house benefits from access to the local town's amenities. Hertford town centre offers a selection of supermarkets, independent shops, cafés and restaurants, particularly around Fore Street and St Andrew Street. Nearby open spaces such as Hartham Common and the riverside walks along the Lea and Beane provide opportunities for leisure and recreation.

Schooling in Bengeo & Hertford is well-regarded, with a choice of primary and secondary schools within the wider town, making the area a popular option for those seeking educational provision close by.

Public transport links are a notable benefit. Hertford North station offers services to London Moorgate and King's Cross, with typical journey times of around 40–50 minutes, while Hertford East provides connections to London Liverpool Street via Broxbourne in approximately 45–55 minutes. Local bus services link surrounding villages and neighbouring towns, and the A10 and A414 are accessible by road, providing routes towards London, Stevenage and the wider Hertfordshire area.

This three-bedroom semi-detached house for sale in Bengeo combines functional internal space with convenient access to the town's facilities, schools, transport links and green spaces.
