Tackley

Is a charming village featuring quintessentially English period houses and an 11th century Church set around a traditional village green. Residents enjoy being part of a friendly community centred around the village's local pub, community shop, primary school and modern playground. Of huge advantage is Tackley's mainline railway station which provides a regular service to Oxford and London Paddington. Just seven miles away, Oxford Parkway offers fast (approx 55 mins) trains into London Marylebone.
