The Property

Dating back to the 1600's and cut into the hillside Fedw is a truly wonderful country residence that offers such charming, character accommodation that makes you feel so at ease when viewing. This stone built detached former farmhouse retains many of the original character features such as the exposed ceiling and wall timbers, the beautiful stair with, newel post and dog gate, together with the large inglenook fireplaces, it is easy to picture yourself sat around a wood burner on a winters evening!

As you enter the property you step into a porch which in turn leads to the main hallway. Immediately the impressive character features are on show with the exposed wall and ceiling timbers. The wonderful dog-legged stair with newel post leads to the first floor with the original dog gate on the half landing which is lovely to see. To the left of the hall is the main reception room, this impressive room boasts an exposed stone inglenook fireplace, with a large, fitted wood burner. There are extensive exposed timbers on show, with windows to the front and rear is offers a light aspect. There is an external door to the rear which opens to the back garden and from here the far-reaching views are extremely impressive! The second reception room is a similar size again with an impressive inglenook fireplace and wood burning stove. The original bread oven remains, with extensive exposed timbers it's a lovely room to relax. From here you have access to the kitchen, which is fitted with ample wall and base units, with a range style cooker and extractor hood. A door open to a stair to a cellar, perfect to keep a bottle of wine cool for an evening meal. The remainder of the ground floor accommodation offers a laundry room, utility and a shower room.

As you climb the wonderful staircase you step onto the large open landing, the character features continue with exposed wall and ceiling timbers always on show. Off the landing you have access to five bedrooms and a bathroom. The main bedroom is a good size double, with the original exposed stone fireplace, exposed timbers and a fitted wardrobe. To the side of the main bedroom is the family bathroom which is fitted with a white suite. The second bedroom is a double and to the rear of the house, this pleasant room enjoys a wonderful view and has the benefit of an en-suite shower room which is fitted with a modern white suite, which still has the original, quirky wooden window in place. Bedrooms three and four are charming rooms with exposed timbers on show, with bedroom three being a double and four a large single. The fifth bedroom, which was used as a for B&B again has the benefit of an en-suite shower room, with a modern white suite.

The beautiful stair climbs to the second floor with a door opening to the landing, watch your head as a low beam will certainly cause you to duck under if accessing the loft! Off the landing the sixth bedroom is a double, again with an en-suite shower room. On the opposite side of the landing a room has been used as a lounge or office which makes this space almost self-contained from the rest of the house, perfect for a family member looking for some privacy. There is access to the large loft area, which offers huge potential for conversion (subject to gaining any necessary permissions).

This house has been well maintained over the years, it was re-roofed in 2004, it is fully double glazed and has oil fired central heating providing a warm welcoming feel.

Outside

Externally the property sits on large grounds which offer a lawn garden to the rear of the house, which backs onto an open field with a large decked seating area to appreciate the breath-taking views! There is an extremely large tarmac driveway and parking area for a large number of vehicles, which leads to the impressive detached steel framed building. Built in 2019 as a storage building for caravans, with high roller doors, concrete floor, power, lighting and water it is a fantastic building which is suitable for a variety of uses.

NOTE - There is a right of way through the grounds for the neighbouring property and land owner.

Additional Land

There is an option to purchase an adjoining 3.7 field by separate negotiation. The field borders the driveway on the right hand side as you approach the house. Ideal for a pony paddock or for the keeping of some livestock. The plan edged is for identification purposes only.

The Location

The property is located 2 miles from the village of Hundred House. The village offers a friendly community in the picturesque Edw Valley. There are a number of dwellings within the hamlet itself, together with a public house and the rural community that surrounds it gives a welcoming feel. Hundred House is a 6 mile drive from the nearest town of Builth Wells but is well located as Hay on Wye and Llandrindod Wells being 13 & 8 miles respectively. The market town of Builth Wells (Llanfair ym Mault) is located at the heart of Powys, Mid-Wales in what is arguably some of the most beautiful countryside in the United Kingdom. Builth Wells lies within the historic boundaries of Brecknockshire, situated on the banks of the River Wye and the River Irfon – the upper section of the Wye Valley. Builth Wells is famously known for playing host to the Royal Welsh Show, which is the biggest agricultural show in Europe and attracts over 240,000 visitors to the town each year. With a population of around two and a half thousand – the positive impact this has on many local businesses located within Builth Wells is immeasurable. Builth Wells is ideally located in regard to beautiful surroundings with the Elan Valley and Brecon Beacons both just a short drive away.
