Introduction

Located in the rural village of Lyonshall is this three double bedroom, terraced cottage. With charm and character aplenty it has accommodation comprising: entrance porch, two reception rooms, kitchen, cloak room, three double bedrooms, bathroom, two garden sheds, private and mature rear garden and street parking to the front of the property.

Property Description

Entry begins into a porch for the hanging of coats and storage of outdoor footwear. There is a cupboard under the stairs for additional storage purposes.

An inner hallway leads to two reception rooms, kitchen, cloakroom and stairs to the first floor. The first reception room has front aspect and a fireplace with brick surround and red quarry tiled hearth. It is currently being used as a music room but could also lend itself to becoming a sitting room/dining room or home office. The second reception room adjoins the kitchen and is currently set up as a sitting room due to it having a large stone ingle nook fireplace with inset wood-burner. The room has side aspect and an exposed stone wall which makes a lovely feature and adds charm and character to this cottage home. The room could become a dining room if otherwise desired.

The kitchen has a good range of wall and floor units with pantry, breakfast bar, waist height ovens, electric hob top, integrated freezer and housing for a washing machine and tall fridge freezer. The room has both side and rear garden aspect giving it a sunny disposition. Leading from the kitchen is a porch area with cloakroom and door to the rear garden. The cloakroom has a traditional WC and hand basin.

On the first floor are three bedrooms, generous landing area, loft hatch and family bathroom. The landing is light and bright and has space for decorative storage furniture. Bedroom one has front aspect and is a good sized double with built-in storage cupboard and room for additional furniture. Bedroom two has side aspect and is also a good sized double with in-built storage cupboard and room for additional bedroom furniture. Bedroom three has side aspect and is currently set up with twin beds. The family bathroom is tastefully styled with bath and shower over, WC, hand-basin, heated chrome towel radiator, airing cupboard (which houses the boiler) and window for added light and ventilation.

Garden

A pedestrian picket gate leads to the front door. There is a paved area with stone dwarf wall for the storage of wheelie bins or occasional seating.

Accessed from the house or through a back gate to the rear of the garden is a lovely and generously proportioned cottage garden. There is an area of paved patio for alfresco dining alongside a large shed with power and lighting. A path leads up to a lawned area with feature stone rockery/border for colourful planting and mature shrubs and trees for areas of shade and interest. To the far end of the garden is an area for vegetable growing with second shed and gate leading out to the rear of the cottage. The whole is secured and private.
