THE PROPERTY

This detached cottage is Grade II listed and has been thoughtfully and tastefully modernised, brimming with character the cottage occupies a mature and private plot within easy reach of the coast and nearby village pub.

Situated in the picturesque hamlet of Chaldon Herring, close to Lulworth Cove and Durdle Door on the renowned Jurassic Coast, the property benefits from a village shop in nearby Winfrith Newburgh, with the larger market towns of Dorchester (approximately 9 miles) and Wareham (approximately 10 miles) providing a wider range of amenities.

The accommodation briefly comprises an entrance hall, sitting room with inglenook, whitewashed walls with wooden floors and wall lights. The kitchen/diner is fitted with a range of cupboards and drawers, ceramic sink and stone work surfaces. A range of fitted shelves and integrated electric oven and hob. There is a fridge freezer and space for a dishwasher and ample room for a table and chairs.

The ground floor bedroom is a double room and there is a separate shower room with WC, basin and large walk in shower.

Upstairs, the principal bedroom is a spacious double with built-in wardrobes. The landing has been thoughtfully arranged as an occasional sleeping area, while the family bathroom features a classic white suite comprising a roll-top bath, wash basin, and WC.

In addition to the cottage the detached garage/studio provides a lovely space to be creative, with power, light and a washing machine. Currently used as an artist studio but offering scope to adapt into accommodation for a range of purposes (annexe/rental) subject to all required permissions.

OUTSIDE

The garden is a good size, mostly lawn that extends around the cottage with a variety of shrubs and trees including Quince, Apple, Walnut and Plum trees, a vegetable garden and two garden sheds. Private with a pathway at the front of the cottage that leads to the Studio and a secluded patio.

There is off road parking.
