This well-proportioned home is tucked away in a quiet cul-de-sac, offering a peaceful setting while remaining conveniently close to everything Frome has to offer.

The property is entered via a front porch, providing a practical buffer from the elements and useful storage space. Inside, the accommodation opens into a good size living and dining room, filled with natural light and enhanced by an impressive double height ceiling that creates a real sense of space and character. This versatile room comfortably accommodates both lounge and dining furniture, making it ideal for everyday living and entertaining.

Externally, the property benefits from off road parking and an easy to maintain rear garden, perfect for those seeking low upkeep outdoor space. The garden also features a secure shed, ideal for bikes, tools, or additional storage.

Located close to the popular Cheese Show Fields, the home enjoys access to open green space and scenic walking routes.

Frome town centre is nearby, well known for its independent shops, cafes, restaurants, and vibrant arts scene, as well as the much-loved monthly Frome Independent market. The town also offers excellent transport links, with easy access to Bath and surrounding areas.
