

Hotspur Street, SE11

£500,000

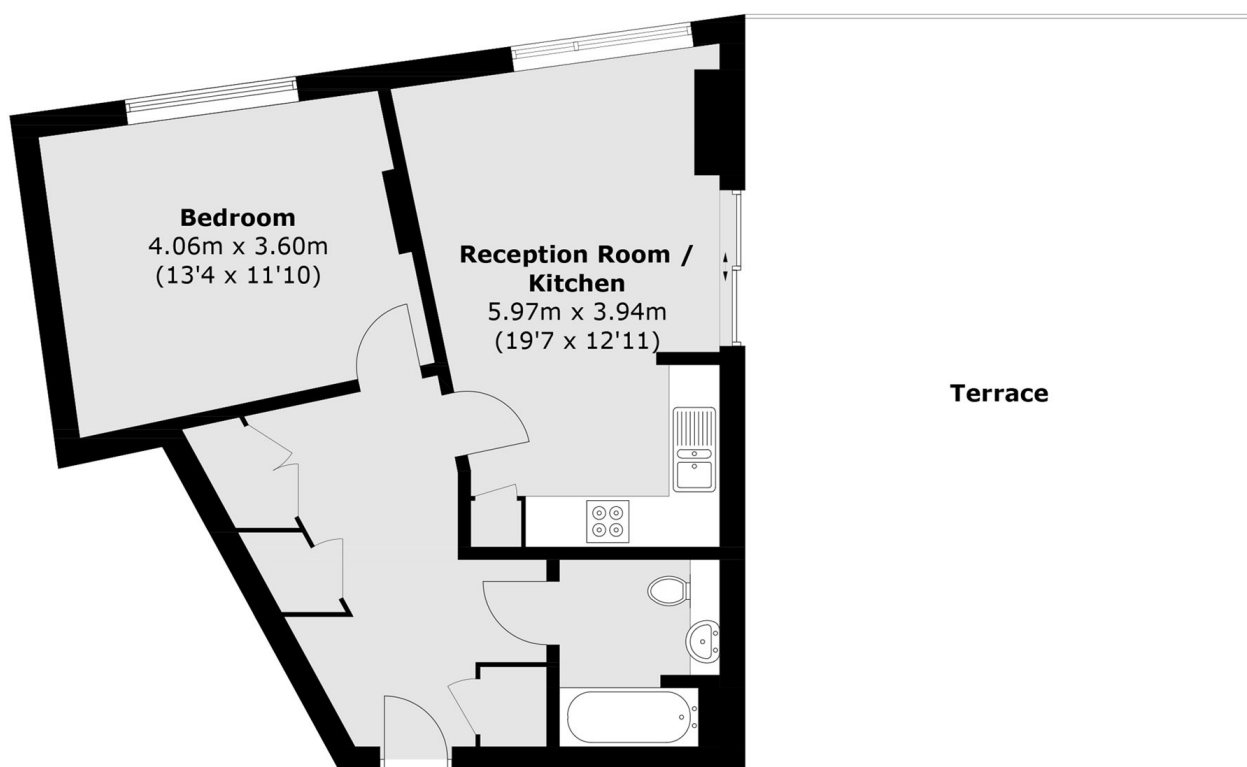

A beautifully presented dual-aspect one-bedroom apartment in the heart of Kennington boasting an exceptional private terrace with spectacular views across the London skyline. The outdoor space is a standout feature, offering an impressive and versatile extension of the apartment with ample room for outdoor dining, entertaining or simply relaxing while taking in the panoramic city views. Inside, the layout creates a wonderfully bright and spacious feel, with the living and dining areas thoughtfully positioned to make the most of the abundant natural light and provide a seamless connection to the expansive terrace. Furthermore there is a concierge and good storage throughout the property.

Located in the centre of Kennington you have both Kennington Underground for the Northern Line and Vauxhall Station for both Victoria and Overground services within easy reach. Kennington Cross boasts independent shops, cafes, bars and restaurants with excellent everyday amenities and you are an easy walk from both the greenery of Kennington Park and the peaceful escape of the Thames riverside.
