Description

Reid and Roberts Estate Agents are delighted to offer to the market this fully modernised Two-Bedroom Top Floor Apartment, situated within the sought-after and well-established development of Acton Hall Walks. Built in 2005 within the footprint and sympathetic style of historic Acton Hall, the development offers attractive and well-maintained communal surroundings.

In brief, the property is accessed via a communal entrance hall with secure voice entry system, leading to a private entrance hall offering excellent storage facilities. The accommodation includes a spacious lounge, a high specification modern kitchen fitted with integrated oven, hob and extractor hood, and two well-proportioned bedrooms. The principal bedroom benefits from a built-in double wardrobe and a contemporary en-suite shower room. A further second bedroom is served by a stylish three-piece bathroom suite. Externally, the property enjoys the advantage of a dedicated parking space, along with additional visitor parking bays.

Acton Hall Walks is conveniently located off Chester Road, within the grounds of Acton Park, approximately one mile equidistant between the town centre and Gresford roundabout. From here, the A483 dual carriageway provides easy access to Chester (approximately 10 miles away) and the wider motorway network. The property is ideally placed for a range of local amenities, including the open green spaces and walks of Acton Park on the doorstep. There are also a selection of nearby hostelleries, along with shopping parades in Garden Village at the end of Park Avenue and on Borrass Park Road, where a doctor's surgery is also located.
