WHAT'S GREAT?

Situated in the heart of the highly sought-after village of Welford, this impressive and deceptively spacious family home combines character with exceptional versatility and practicality.

This substantial period residence is rich in original charm, offering flexible accommodation ideally suited to modern family life. Its adaptable layout makes it an excellent choice for multigenerational living. The property is in need of modernisation and refurbishment, offering a fantastic opportunity for buyers to renovate and create a home tailored to their own tastes and requirements.

The well-proportioned accommodation provides an abundance of generous living space, with elegant reception rooms perfectly suited to both everyday family life and larger-scale entertaining. A particularly distinctive feature is what is believed to be the oldest spiral staircase in Northamptonshire, leading down to the property's cellar.

The first floor offers five generously sized bedrooms and two well-appointed family bathrooms. The flexible layout also lends itself to those working from home or requiring additional guest accommodation.

The property also presents the opportunity to be configured as two separate dwellings, offering exceptional flexibility for a variety of living arrangements.

Further potential exists, subject to the necessary planning consents, with the existing garage and adjoining workshop offering excellent scope for conversion into a self-contained annexe. This versatile space could provide accommodation for dependent relatives, independent teenagers, guests, a home office or a studio.

Outside, the property is complemented by beautiful gardens that enjoy a high degree of privacy, creating an idyllic setting for outdoor entertaining, family enjoyment and peaceful relaxation. Ample off-road parking further enhances the appeal and practicality of this home.

Offered to the market with no onward chain, this is a rare opportunity to acquire a substantial, characterful home.
