Welcome to Tees House. This magnificent 1970s brick-built family home offers excellent potential for modernisation and expansion. This impressive five-bedroom detached property enjoys an elevated position overlooking the River Tees, with extensive frontage and planning permission for a substantial extension, including an elevated, glazed penthouse style area, detached garage, workshop, wine cellar/basement, in a highly desirable village. Full details of the approved plans are available in the brochure.

The current layout comprises an entrance porch and hallway, sitting room, dining room, kitchen, study, garden room and a ground-floor fifth bedroom with adjacent bathroom. Upstairs there are four further bedrooms and a family bathroom. The flexible layout allows for four or five bedrooms or multiple reception rooms, whichever being more practical. The first floor would offer five bedrooms and four bathrooms, including a principal suite with a balcony, while the second floor features a striking penthouse-style space with panoramic river views.

Set within one of six homes on the former orchard of Croft Hall, the property retains several original fruit trees and is accessed via a private road. Offering ample parking for several vehicles, turning space, and a garage along with extensive gardens which are mainly laid to lawn and bordered by mature hedging to provide a high degree of privacy.

There are steps that lead down towards the river, sloping down towards a split level area where you can absorb the beautiful surroundings and tranquility. The gardens extend to around one-third of an acre,

The property is well placed for local amenities, schools, and renowned venues such as Rockcliffe Hall. Nearby Richmond, Northallerton, and Darlington offer wider facilities and rail links to London and Edinburgh. The A19 is easily accessible, offering links to surrounding towns.
