Eltringham Street, SW18

£1,100,000

This outstanding four bedroom Victorian house has been beautifully extended and renovated throughout to provide a wonderfully spacious and light family home.

To the front, the double reception room retains its two fireplaces, with built-in cupboards and shelving to either side, as well as a large bay window.

The extended kitchen has been widened into the side return and fitted with Shaker-style units. It is fully equipped with integrated appliances and provides plenty of space for a dining table. The kitchen opens onto a sunny garden, which has been paved and features raised borders. There is also a useful ground-floor WC.
