Situated in a highly desirable village location, this end terrace property constructed, we believe, on the turn of the 20th century, provides fantastic, deceptively spacious living accommodation arranged over three floors that will no doubt suit a variety of markets. The existing layout includes a ground floor entrance hall with original stained-glass feature windows, lounge with feature fireplace and a fantastic open plan kitchen/dining/family area. On the first floor, there are two double bedrooms, the principal bedroom affording fantastic far-reaching views across Chepstow and the Severn Estuary, as well as a four-piece family bathroom. The property further benefits from a second-floor conversion to provide a double bedroom or indeed flexible home office or study, which is perfect for the everyday homemaker. Finally, the outside offers a good-sized, low maintenance rear garden. Providing fantastic open plan contemporary living, coupled with many original character features, properties on this row rarely come to the market and we would strongly recommend arranging an internal viewing to appreciate what this property has to offer. With its ideal village location in the heart of Tutshill, a number of facilities are close at hand, including local primary and secondary schools, well-renowned local butchers, Morrisons Daily and a café, with a further range of amenities a short walk away in nearby Chepstow. There are good bus, road and rail links with the A48, M48 and M4 motorway networks bringing Newport, Cardiff and Bristol all within commuting distance.
