On the ground floor of an attractive detached building is this stunning maisonette, with own private garden with direct access and private driveway with parking for 2 cars. Situated within a lovely quiet road and yet close to a great range of local shops and an abundance of bus routes. The property enjoys share of freehold together with a 980 year lease, no ground or service charge. This lovely maisonette is a rare find and whilst it could be a great first time buy it could also suit someone looking to downsize as it feels more like a bungalow. The maisonette has light neutral decor, gas central heating and double glazing. The garden is lovely and the parking allows for parking side by side. Offered to the market chain free.
