Situation - Corsham

The property is located within a popular development of Corsham towards the western side of town. Corsham is a thriving North Wiltshire community centred around an historic high street with many interesting stone buildings and a variety of shopping facilities. Corsham also benefits from having a leisure centre, primary and secondary school and is particularly well placed for ease of access to the historic Georgian city of Bath via the A4, approximately 7 miles distance.

There is also a main line rail service from Chippenham station, which is approximately 4 miles distance, offering a service to London (Paddington) and the M4 motorway which is also close to hand, approximately 3 miles to the north of Chippenham via Junction 17.
