 FINE & COUNTRY

Step inside

74 Kingsgate Avenue

Unlike most of the delightful detached houses that border the prestigious Kingsgate Avenue, this particularly fine and secluded residence is completely hidden behind the hedge of a very large front garden. It is approached down a long drive and nestles in the midst of 0.7351 of an acre, providing significant potential for the development of additional properties.

The house was built in 1957 to a very high specification by well-respected builders W.W. Martin and includes interesting original features such as herringbone parquet flooring in the main reception rooms, wide coved ceilings, picture rails, fireplaces and oak doors as well as a plethora of very useful storage cupboards throughout the property. The house also has the potential to incorporate an annex and additional accommodation in the large boarded attic.

The impressive entrance includes interesting covered eaves with oak supports and the front door that opens into a very spacious entrance hall with access to the main reception rooms, a cloakroom with laundry facilities, the original easy rise straight staircase to the first floor and impressive under stairs storage. There is the large dual aspect dining room with a wide bay window, a stone surround fireplace and an open fire and where at least a dozen guests could enjoy a formal dinner or a family celebration.

There is a well-proportioned kitchen/breakfast room with a plethora of flat fronted soft close units with Corian worktops housing an induction hob and double oven as well as space for additional appliances and plenty of room for a table and chairs.

On the other side of the hall is the elegant dual aspect sitting room with a stone fireplace and a bay window as well as a door to a small office. This has access to a utility room, a workroom and a lobby with a cloakroom, access to the garden and a door to the hall. It would be possible to create a totally separate annex with its own independent entrance in this area of the house if required.

A large galleried landing includes a vast array of storage cupboards and a cloakroom as well as access to the attic. This has been completely boarded - floor, walls and ceiling, so could be used as a games room or converted into additional accommodation. The first floor includes a family bathroom and five bedrooms with lovely views over the grounds featuring a dual aspect single with door access to a dual aspect double with fitted cupboards and three further bedrooms including one with a wide bay window with sea glimpses, fitted cupboards and an ensuite Jack and Jill shower.

Outside there are lovely flat lawns interspersed with mature trees and shrubs as well as a summerhouse, a garden shed and the double garage with an electric door. The garden gets the sun all day and there are 15 solar panels on the south east facing roof that feed into the National grid and provide extra power in the house.

Seller Insight

“ This has been our wonderful home for the past 25 years but we feel it is now time to downsize and let new owners realise its enormous potential. We have always loved the peace and tranquility this property has provided and the fact we can walk to the clifftops, the Blue Flag Botany Bay or the Botany Bay hotel in about 10 minutes.

We are not far from the quiet Kingsgate Bay or Joss Bay for surfing and paddle boarding and are within walking distance of the North Foreland Golf course for golfing enthusiasts. While, if you want a drink or a meal without having to take the car out, there is the Botany Bay hotel or the Captain Digby restaurant. Because parking on the road is only for residents there is always plenty of parking space available.

*A regular bus service takes you around Thanet on the Loop and there is a useful convenience store at the top of the road, while the Victorian town of Broadstairs with its lovely promenade and picturesque Viking Bay, is only a five minute drive. It has a mainline high speed rail service, a wide variety of individual shops, bars and restaurants and a number of annual events such as Folk Week, the Dickens Festival and the Food Fair. There are also excellent education facilities with Outstanding primary and grammar schools as well as first class private schools in the locale. ”
