A Rare Opportunity – First Time Available in Over 20 Years

Situated on one of Kew's most desirable tree-lined residential roads, this elegant four-bedroom, three-bathroom period home comes to the market for the first time in more than two decades.

Beautifully blending timeless Victorian character with generous family accommodation, the property offers bright and well-proportioned living spaces arranged over multiple floors. Period features, high ceilings and large sash windows combine with thoughtfully designed interiors to create a welcoming family home.

The accommodation comprises four generous bedrooms, three bathrooms (including en-suite facilities), spacious reception rooms ideal for both everyday living and entertaining, and a well-appointed kitchen opening onto a private rear garden.

Haverfield Gardens is a quiet cul-de-sac in the heart of Kew, moments from the village's independent cafés, boutiques and restaurants, with the Royal Botanic Gardens, Kew, nearby. Kew Gardens Station (District Line and London Overground) provides excellent connections into Central London, while a number of outstanding local schools are within easy reach.

Offering a rare opportunity to acquire a substantial period home in this highly sought-after location, this exceptional property is ideal for families seeking character, space and convenience in one of south-west London's most prestigious neighbourhoods.
