DESCRIPTION

Originally understood to date back to 1650 and formerly a toll house, the property was sympathetically extended around 1950 and now presents painted rendered elevations with mainly replacement double glazed leaded light style windows beneath a thatched roof, re-thatched in 2019. This quintessentially English 'chocolate box' cottage offers accommodation arranged over 2 floors which has been tastefully modernised to combine original features with 21st Century refinements. This is certainly a property that needs to be viewed internally to be fully appreciated.
