An immaculately presented 3 bedroom bungalow, in a peaceful location overlooking fields to the rear of the property with private driveway, car port and single garage.

This property boasts a large dual aspect lounge/dining room with patio doors leading out to the secluded patio/garden. Smart kitchen with integrated hob, oven and dishwasher plus washing machine and fridge freezer. Well presented shower room. 3 good sized bedrooms, 2 of which have built in wardrobes.

Good sized private garden laid predominantly to lawn with large enclosed private patio area and uninterrupted views across fields. The bungalow is sat within a quiet cul de sac in a semi rural village location.

The pretty village of Beenham has a pub, village green and countryside walks from the doorstep. The village is set around 6 miles west of the M4, Jct 12 and around 5 miles from Theale Station, making it ideal for commuters looking for some country living.

Please note that this property's garden openly backs onto fields of livestock, therefore pets will not be considered.
