SOUTH STREET FARM

South Street Farm, Wrotham Road, Meopham, Kent DA13 0QJ

A well presented, detached farmhouse with 6.5 acres (*TBV) of pastureland offering versatile 4 bedroom accommodation with excellent scope to further extend (currently 2876sqft) and/or reconfigure to include a 5th first floor bedroom and additional ground floor integral annexe if required.

The property is situated in a semi rural position with views to the front and rear and offers perfect options for those seeking a country home, with potential to add equestrian facilities (Subject to Planning Permission where appropriate) as well as being set near to local village amenities and with easy access to fast road and rail commuting links. No Chain.eip.

LOCATION & AREA AWARENESS

The property is approached from a front entrance driveway into a spacious parking area with large Triple garage. For a good range of local amenities the village of Meopham is around half a mile away with well known cricket green and two parades of shops, one of which includes a Tesco Express, a number of renowned Public Houses, post office, primary school, secondary school and doctors surgery, as well as a main line railway station offering excellent commuting links with direct services to London Victoria. For further rail commuting other alternatives include a High Speed link at Ebbsfleet International station, just two junctions along the nearby A2 with services connecting to Stratford International and St Pancras International (for Kings Cross) in under 25 minutes. Further primary schools in the locality Vigo and Culverstone Green and grammar schools in Gravesend. For more comprehensive shopping and amenities the busy towns of Dartford and Gravesend are in convenient driving distance as is Bluewater Park shopping complex. Road links to the A2, M25, M2 and M20 are all close by making routes to London or airports including Gatwick and Heathrow, relatively easy!
